CBRE Enters into “Corporate Location Support Agreement” with Kanagawa Prefecture Agreement aims to promote local economic revitalization

CBRE today announced that it has signed a “Corporate Location Support Agreement” with Kanagawa Prefecture, offering corporate location support and services to businesses considering or confirmed to set up a base in the area. CBRE will leverage its extensive knowledge of the local real estate market to find solutions that best meet clients’ needs. This agreement will allow CBRE to entice companies to Kanagawa Prefecture and thereby promote its economic revitalization.

1. Purpose of the agreement

To attract businesses to Kanagawa Prefecture by exchanging information (on clients’ location needs, industrial sites, and office rental sales/leases) and hosting joint seminars.

2. Agreement components

- i. To co-host corporate real estate seminars, consultation meetings
- ii. To offer local real estate advice to companies interested in the prefecture
- iii. To provide local real estate information to companies interested in the prefecture
- iv. To support other real estate-related means of promoting the prefecture to companies

3. Agreement execution date

May 21, 2019

CBRE Yokohama branch manager Hideto Otaki commented, “I am very happy to formalize this agreement with Kanagawa Prefecture. CBRE has been operating in Japan for close to 50 years. We will leverage our market knowledge and expertise to act as a strategic real estate advisor, proposing optimal solutions for companies looking to set up a base in Kanagawa Prefecture. Through this agreement, CBRE will help promote and contribute towards the revitalization of Kanagawa Prefecture’s economy.”
